Different Caves, Same Light

KURT MEL PISLA-OTINGGEY

Lo and Behold, Prophet Muhammad
Peace be Upon Him and Plato has a talk.

Plato: Friend, be aware of the caves that they might be caged us into thinking as the mere home to stay.

Muhammad: Astaghfirullah.¹ It is the place where I see the wisdom of God
with the help of his Messenger Angels Gabriel.

¹ Astaghfirullah in Arabic can mean as Forgive us Oh God.

Plato: But you did not just stay there for your whole life. Is not it?

Muhammad: Indeed. I did not worship the cave. I found the truth in that cave.

Plato: But getting outside there, what have you seen?

Muhammad: It was another bright light of wisdom, another day to live.

Plato: Oh how precious. In my sight it is as well the beginning of wisdom...And when I get outside, there was a person standing.

Muhammad: Who was it?

Plato: I cannot fully recognized. But his shining face is a beauty beyond names. And he said this. Before your friend Socrates was I am.

Muhammad: That's our unknown friend Isa Al-Masih. You can call him Kyrie Jesus Christos.

Plato: Was that the man being born out of virgin named Mary?

Muhammad:
Of course he is.

Plato: Good Lord. He is the wisdom in flesh and the other half of Socrates.

Muhammad: Praise be to the Almighty.
